A NOTE FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

I choreographed my very first show for the Hi-Liners in 1996, and I will admit I was a bit of a theatre snob. I appreciated the job, but secretly labeled the organization "community theatre," and I didn't consider that to be a compliment. Twenty-six years and a pandemic later, I don't think I have ever appreciated the community that is this theatre more.

Disney's Descendants: The Musical, with its themes of redemption, inclusion, and opening our hearts to those we fear, struck me as the perfect show for our times. MainStage is this big, blended, instant family that starts out with a bunch of strangers, blindly trusting each other, and ends up with an expression of cohesive collaboration on opening night. Do you know what rehearsals and production meetings are? They are rooms full of people working through our fears, our insecurities, our stubborn preconceptions, not to mention personal and artistic weaknesses. Daily, we transcend all of these foibles, encouraging each other not to focus on the stumbling but to celebrate the risks that have been taken to achieve a common artistic expression.

It is an honor to work with each of these co-creators and it is an honor to gather with you, once again, to take the creative process to its ultimate moment, which is this performance. For this moment, we gather together, (finally) in this room, to form community theatre. Thank you to all of you, and HMT, for teaching me the power of that word.

DON'T HAVE TO WIN THE GOAL ALL ON YOUR OWN
WE'RE A TEAM NOW, WE'RE STRONGER
DON'T HAVE TO FACE THE WHOLE WORLD ALL ALONE
'CAUSE WE ALL BELONG HERE
THE ROAD COULD BE HARD
AND THE NIGHT COULD BE DARK
BUT LIKE STARS, WE'LL SHINE BRIGHTLY WHEREVER WE ARE
IF WE STICK TO THE DREAM
WE'LL NEVER FALL APART

BECAUSE WE'RE BETTER TOGETHER
